SYMPOSIUM OVERVIEW

Florence and The Renaissance of the Nervous System

Functional Neurology, Neuroplasticity, and Clinical Applications in Chiropractic

Set against the backdrop of Florence, the historical epicenter of anatomical exploration, perspective, and scientific rebirth, this intensive two-day symposium bridges the art of clinical observation with modern, translational functional neuroscience. Designed specifically for chiropractors, the curriculum moves deliberately beyond conventional reductionist paradigms. Under the guidance of Prof. Dr. Frederick R. Carrick, attendees will explore how complex neurological networks can be mapped, measured, and actively adjusted using non-surgical, non-pharmacological interventions.

CORE THEMATIC PILLARS & LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Neuroanatomy
and functional
circuitry

Philosophical foundations of neurological diagnosis

mTBI and
concussion
rehabilitation

Cervico-ocular-
vestibular
integration

Evidence-based,
non-invasive
treatment

The WHY of Chiropractic:

Connecting Life, Healing and the Joy of Living

Dr. Dominique Hort will explore health as a dynamic process through Perception, Behavior and Structure, with a focus on Presence (Awareness, Acknowledgement and Acceptance) and the role of the nervous system. The presentation will integrate the physical, emotional, mental, biometric and spiritual dimensions of being, and the "codes of life" that guide our choices, relationships and health. An invitation to reconnect with the WHY of chiropractic and to bring greater purpose, passion and joy to practice and life.
